

These empty baby shoes represent the children of South Dakota that we as a state have failed to protect.

The federal law which allows the invasion of a woman's body for the direct purpose of destroying the life inside should have never been respected in our great state.

It is our responsibility to protect our own women and children within our state. These babies are "innocent until proven guilty" and are rightfully protected under righteous laws.

I want to thank you for any work you have already done for this cause and urge you to implement justice in our state regardless of the Roe v. Wade decision. Let them challenge us in the courts and let our state motto be true "Under God, the people rule".

I am personally willing to knock on doors until my knuckles bleed if we are given the chance to vote on this. But until then, may God give you wisdom and courage to do what is right.

Peace begins in the womb,

Sioux Falls, SD
